GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Resolution No. 1753/33.
Bombay Castle, 29th April, 1948.

RESOLUTION OF GOVERNMENT.

The question of the desirability of effecting an increase in the rates of subsistence allowance granted to Government servants under suspension has been engaging the attention of Government for some time. It has now been decided to raise the limit imposed in Bombay Civil Service Rule 151 (b) on the grant of subsistence allowance to Government servants under suspension as follows :-

A supy Government servant will be entitled to a subsistence allowance at the rate of one-half the average pay during the first year of suspension and at 3/8th of the average during the remaining period, if any. The rate, however, shall not exceed Rs. 1,000 per month in the case of Government servants subject to special Leave Rules and Rs. 750 per month in the case of others.

Note :- The average pay should be calculated in accordance with Bombay Civil Services Rule 9 (6) in respect of old as well as new entrants.

2. In addition to subsista ce allowance, an officer under suspension may be granted any compensatory allowance (i.e. dearness, house rent allowance etc.) of which he was in receipt on the date of suspension to such extent and subject to such conditions as the suspending authority may direct.

3. These orders should have effect from 1st January 1948. They will also apply to officers under suspension on 1st January 1948 but no arrears if subsistence allowance and other allowances will be admissible.

The Hon'ble Minister,

Sir,

I beg to refer to Government letter No. 8446/36-E (I) (confidential) dated 22nd May 1947 in which subsistence allowance of Rs. 100/- with Rs. 35/- p.m. being the half th cost of living allowance was sanctioned. On the 31st January 1947 when I was suspended, my pay was Rs. 450/- including Rs. 50/- special allowance drawn by me for nearly ten months as personal assistant of the Public Health Engineer. Presumably the amount of Rs. 50/- of the allowance appears to have been lost sight of in calculating the subsistence allowance of Rs. 100/- Besides, minimum living (War)allowance admissible to a Gazetted officer is Rs. 50/. against Rs. 35/- sanctioned. Government have now appreciated the inadequacy of the 25% subsistence allowance and raised to 50%. On the same analogy. I request Government to reassess the subsistence allowance at Rs. 112/8/- instead of Rs. 100/- and increase the living allowance to Rs. 50/- instead of Rs. 35/. p.m. from 31st January 1947.

Submitted with reference to G.L. No. S. 113/9255 -E(I), dated the 1-7-1948.

2. In G.R. , F.D., No. 1753 /33 dated the 29-4-1948. Government has revised the rates of subsistence allowance and other allowances admissible to Government servants under suspension. The A.G. was accordingly requested to intimate the allowances that would be admissible to the four officers of this Government who are under suspension. The following table will show the allowances at present given to the officers and the allowances admissible according to the revised orders as reported by the A.G.:-

Name	Allowances granted at present.	Allowances admissible according to revised orders.
Mr. M.M. Vyas.	Subsistence Allowance Rs. 100/- p.m. Dearness Allowance. Rs. 35/-	Sub. allowance. (Rs. 227-14-0.p.m. from 1-1-48 to 30-1-48 Rs. 170-14-0 p.m. from 31-1-48 onwards. Dearness allowance Rs. 70 p.m. or less as may be fixed by Government,.
Mr.,L.M. Damany.	Sub. Allce. Rs. 60/- p.m. Compensatory allowance Rs. 27-8-0 p.m. Dearness allowance Rs. 25/-p.m. Since 1-5-48 he is given an nominal sub. allowce. of Re1/- p.m.	Sub. al(Rs. 112-10-0- from 1-1-48 to 3-2-48 Lice. (Rs. 84-8-0 from 4-2-48 to 30-4-48. Com. Allce. Rs. 50/- p.m. or less as may be fixed by Govt. Dearness allowance Rs. 50/- p.m. or Less as may be fixed by Govt. (From 1-5-48, he will be entitled to a nominal subsistence allce. of Rs. 1/- p.m.)

Name	Allowance granted at present.	Allowances admissible according to revised orders.
Rao Saheb R.B. Chitnis.	Sub. Allce Rs. 116 p.m. Dearness allce. Rs. 35/p.m.	Sub. allace (Rs. 235-10-0-.p.m. from 1-1-48 to 18-9-48 Rs. 176-12-0.p.m. from 19-9-48 onwards. Dearness allowance Rs. 70/- p.m. or less as may be decided by Govt.
Mr. D.J. Gajab.	Subsistence allowance Rs. 88-12-0.p.m. Dearness allce. Rs. 70/-	Sub. allce. (Rs. 177-8-0.p.m. from 1-1-48 to 19.9.48 Rs. 133-2-0. from 20-9-48 onwards. Dear ness allowance Rs. 70/- p.m. or less as may decided by Govt.

3. So far as the grant of subsistence allowance is concerned, the officers will have to be granted the amounts reported by the A.G. Since the F.D. orders state that they are entitled to these rates. In the case of compensatory allowance and dearness allowance the amounts stated by the A.G. are the maximum limits and it is left to the suspending authority (in this case Govt. in P.W.D.) to grant them at such rates and subject to such conditions as it may deem fit.

4. The rates of dearness allowance and compensatory allowance (this is granted to Mr. Damany only) that are being given to these officers at present are 50% (except in the case of Mr. Gajab) of the ratesat which the allowances were drawn prior to suspensation. It was open to Govt. to to grant these allowances at the full rates at which they were drawn prior to suspension but it was on the advice of the F.D. that it was decided to grant only half that amount. It may be mentioned that it was not necessary to consult the F.D. in the matter and it is within the powers of the suspending authority, viz., Government in the P.W.D. to grant any amount subject to the maximum limits laid down.

In the case of Mr. Gajab it seems orders regarding sub allowance and D.A. were issued by the S.E. N.C. and he was given the full D.A. i.e. Rs. 70/- p.m. which he was getting prior to suspension.

(i) Whether the officers should continue to be granted dearness allowance and compensatory allowance at the same rates at which they are being granted at present;

or (ii) Whether in view of the high cost of living the rates should be raised and if so to what extent;

or (iii) Whether they should be granted these allowance at the maximum rates admissible, i.e., those mentioned in para 2 of the A.G.'s letter,

Since Mr. Gajab is already receiving D.A. according to (iii) above it seems fair that all should be given at the same rate.

5. It may also be mentioned that in the case of Mr. L.M. Damany who was prosecuted and on conviction by the first court has filed an appeal, the subsistence allowance has been reduced to a nominal amount of Re.1/- p.m. from the 1-5-48, pending the result of the appeal. The A.G. presumes that this will be revised in view of the revised orders of Government . The presumption is not correct since the orders issued by the F.D apply to ordinary cases of suspension where the guilt of the Government servant has not been established and not to cases like Mr. DamanY's where the guilt has already been established in a court of law. It is understood that separate orders in this matter are being issued from the F.D., Mr. Damany will therefore have to be continued to be paid the nominal subsistence allowance at the rate of Re. 1/- p.m. from the 1-5-48 as advised by the P.&S.D..

6, The necessary draft orders revising the allowances granted to the four officers are put up for approval and submission. The amounts of dearness allowance and compensatory allowance will be entered in the drafts on receipt of orders.

Id/- 15/9/48

Para 4. The cases of suspended offices generally take a long time till they are finally decided. It would therefore be merciful to grant them, the full dearness allowance etc permissible under rules.

Para 5:- In the case of Mr. Damany, the Special orders may continue to remain in force.

The drafts should be finanlised after orders.
